

Key Texts:

Ultimate Oceanpedia,
Horrible Geography,
How the whale became,
Dougal's Deep-sea diary,

Marvellous middle:

Watch Blue Planet for the day with popcorn and a hot chocolate.

Odious Oceans Year 6-Summer 1

Focus: Guided Reading on fiction and non-fiction.

Key Skills:

- I can read texts that are structured in different styles and by different authors,
- I can compare themes and conventions,
- I can discuss and comment on ideas, events, structures, issues, characters and plots.
- I can show my understanding by summarising the main ideas over a paragraph or a number of paragraphs.
- I can discuss how language and presentation can contribute to meanings.
- I can fully explain my views with reasons and evidence from the text.

Assessment opportunity

Write on:

Write reviews on which texts is your most preferred and why.

Focus: non-fiction. Leaflet about an aspect of the ocean.

Key Skills:

- Eye-catching designs,
- Play on words,
- Technical vocabulary,
- A range of punctuation,
- Explain and discuss their reasons for their presentations and word choice in a formal presentation,
- A range of writing styles to present different sections and why.
- Past progressive,
- Imperative verbs,

Assessment opportunity

Write on:

Choice of which part of their magazine they write and design first.

Phonics/ Spellings

Year 5/6 spellings, Year 5 and 6 spelling patterns, Year 3 and 4 spelling patterns, homographs, silent letters.