

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been an eventful week here at London Meed, with our whole school community really demonstrating the school value of Resilience over the past few days! Our staff team has been seriously affected by absence and illness this week, but they have continued to deliver a high level of professionalism whilst not compromising the safety of our school community. They have worked hard to adapt to our school Contingency Plan B and make school life as normal as it can possibly be for all of the children. We are also very grateful to parents and carers for wearing face masks, observing social distancing and generally supporting us during these tricky times.

We appreciate that it was very disappointing that our Christmas performances were cancelled in Key Stages One and Two. Mrs McManus has worked tirelessly to bring some festive cheer to the school, including arranging to have lights and a reindeer outside the Large Hall.

The decision has been made to continue with the School Christmas lunch on Thursday 16th December even if we are in "bubbles". Parents and carers of children in Key Stage Two can continue to order a Christmas lunch for their child up until Sunday 5th December (all children in EYFS and Key Stage One will automatically have one ordered for them). We will also go ahead with the class Christmas parties on the last day of term, with the school providing refreshments for the children.

Children are welcome to bring in Christmas cards for their friends. Please can we ask that cards are brought into school on a Monday so that they can be quarantined before being given out on a Friday. Cards need to have the child's name and class written clearly on them.

Have a super weekend.

Jake Terrill

Deputy Head teacher
