

... talk about stories with different themes and know what they are.	... work out what the author means even if he/she hasn't written it down.	... I can find words and phrases in my books to explain what they mean.	... skim quickly over texts to get an idea of what they are about.	... use alphabetic texts to find information.	... know about non-fiction texts and say what will be in the text.	... guess what will happen in the type of story I have read before.	... read aloud well, pausing at full stops, and changing voice for exclamation, question and speech marks.
... understand how authors use words to make stories funny, scary or real.	... find information in non-fiction texts and decide if it is useful.	... choose my own books and know what I like.	... talk about books and find examples in the text to support my opinions.	... read the words on List 1 and other familiar and important words.	... read all the vowel digraphs and trigraphs.	... read words with more than one syllable.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.
... talk about my own books and know what I like.	... find information in non-fiction texts and decide if it is useful.	... read the words on List 1 and other familiar and important words.	... read all the vowel digraphs and trigraphs.	... read words with more than one syllable.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.
... talk about the similarities and differences between books.	... know about non-fiction texts and say what will be in the text.	... guess what will happen in the type of story I have read before.	... read all the vowel digraphs and trigraphs.	... read words with more than one syllable.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.
... choose my own books and know what I like.	... find information in non-fiction texts and decide if it is useful.	... read the words on List 1 and other familiar and important words.	... read all the vowel digraphs and trigraphs.	... read words with more than one syllable.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.	... read words with prefixes, suffixes and verb endings.

